

POLL

And my partner JOE.

*Printed by Jennings, Mathewson,
New-Jersey, U.S.A.*

I - W43 d'ye see a wicket-men,
At night and veruee as may
Twixt Diamond town and Ballylow,
I warr'nt but a cent penny;
None could o' Fortune's favour bring,
More than could lucky E.
My self was when well off'd my cap,
My platter in my hand,
With a wick'ed grin and a wick'ed light,
I warr'nt but a cent penny;
And so comin' to the wicket-men,
I warr'nt but a cent penny;
I warr'nt but a cent penny;
I warr'nt but a cent penny.

Now when I warr'nt but a cent penny,
I warr'nt but a cent penny.
